218th CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA

THE COMMEMORATION OF RICHARD HOOKER
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 2001
CHRIST CHAPEL, EPISCOPAL ACADEMY

"Build Anew My World" –
"Construir de nuevo mi mundo"

FIRST BUSINESS SESSION

The convention opened with the singing of the Gathering Hymn –"Praise to the Lord, the Almighty." The delegates were welcomed by "Richard Hooker," Dr. Philip Secor.

Interpreting to the Church the needs, concerns and hopes of the world: Deacon Nancy Deming.

The Rt. Rev. Charles E. Bennison, Jr., Bishop of Pennsylvania & President of Convention, issued the Call to Order.

Greetings from Dr. James Crawford, Headmaster, and the Rev. James Squire, Chaplain, Episcopal Academy. Dr. Crawford spoke of the importance of the connection Episcopal Academy has with the Diocese.

Bishop Bennison recognized members of the Standing Committee, Deans, the Manager of the Church Foundation, and the Executive Director of Episcopal Community Services.

The first business session began with Bishop Bennison appointing William C. Bullitt, Esq., as Parliamentarian. The Bishop then nominated Diane-Louise (D-L) Wormley as Secretary of Convention. This was confirmed. Ms. Womley's appointment of Ms. Julie Roman as Assistant Secretary of Convention was also confirmed.

Bishop Bennison called upon The Rev. Ron Jaynes, Chair, Convention Arrangements Committee. who presented the committee's memo on arrangements.

Bishop Bennison drew attention to the Standing Rules of Order in deputies' packets (App. 7), noting that Item 11 Should read, "When the question is upon the passage of a debatable resolution, amendments, or substitute, the mover thereof may in all cases be allowed one minute' time in which to close the debate."

The Secretary drew attention to Business left Unfinished from the 218th Convention and stated that there was no unfinished business.

The Secretary then called Convention's attention to the following items on the agenda:

DC2.9 Canons of Courtesy. This is attached to these minutes as Appendix 2.
Members of Religious Orders, SR 25. (App. 3)
Youth Representation, SO IV.6 (App. 4)
Circulation of Literature SR 24 (App. 5)
Clergy Not Eligible to Votebut having seat & voice (App. 26)

Under Congregations Not Eligible for Representation, DCon. IV.5, the Secretary reported that the following congregations have failed to pay the Assessment for The Episcopate for two or more years and will not be seated: All Saints', Wynnewood, Good Shepherd, Rosemont, St. James the Less.

The following congregations have not paid their Episcopate Assessments for the year 2001. These parishes have presented their situations to the Committee on Finance and Property, which recommends seating at this convention. No motion is necessary to seat them: Church of the Crucifixion, St. Jude and The Nativity, St. Peter's, Germantown, St. Phillip's Memorial Church

The following congregations have not filed parochial reports. No action is recommended: All Saints, Wynnewood, St. James the Less, Church of the Crucifixion, Good Shepherd, Rosemont.

The Rev. Glenn Matis, Chair, Claims of Clergy to Seats, reported that there were no claims of clergy to seats (DC 2.2, 2.3, SR1, SO II 5(a).

Mr. Kenneth Werner, Esq., Chair of Finance and Property, reported that there were no Claims of Laity to Seats.

Mr. Craig Alston, Agenda Chair, Dispatch of Business moved the approval of Proposed Agenda.

One change – Item 6.15 moved to Item 22.1. The motion to adopt the revised agenda moved, seconded and approved.

Ms. Janice May, Chair, Resolutions Committee gave her report:

Pre-convention hearings were held in each Deanery with 350 attending; The Committee received nine resolutions. The revision of R.4 to R.4a resulted from comments during the pre-convention hearings; R 9 has been referred to the Committee for Abundant Life; Hair Trigger is not recommended for approval, but open to debate; the Committee recognizes there may be other resolutions which will be added to 27.1.1 and 27.1.2.

Mr. Alston moved the Consent Calendar, Resolutions R-1 through R-3, which was adopted.

Resolution of Courtesy: The Rev. Dr. Gordon Lathrop was recognized.

Dear sisters and brothers in Jesus Christ:

Thank you very much for your courtesy resolution, welcoming me here. In one of his essays, Martin Luther called the sacraments "a bridge, a ford, a ship, a stretcher" set out to bring us across the gulf of death and despair to life, to hope, to God. I want to thank you, priests and people of this Diocese, for setting out this "bridge, ford, ship, stretcher" in your local places in this needy time. And I especially want to thank you for doing so — for setting out bridge, ford, ship, stretcher — in increasing communion with your Lutheran neighbors, as a small beginning sign of the end of the public scandal of Christian division.

But I also want to assure you that the splendid little congregation which is charged with gathering around and keeping your bishop's chair — the increasingly both Lutheran and Episcopal congregation — and the splendid Dean, Richard Giles, who is pastor of that congregation, are also setting out that bridge, ford, ship, stretcher in the heart of our city, for the sake of life and hope. We are doing so in a manner that seeks to be responsible to both Episcopal and Lutheran tradition while also responding to the urgent need for mission in the city now. And we are doing so with a longing that our place of assembly will also be a place of meeting for all those who care about the mission of the gospel in our city. Please come to see us. And God give you a good convention.

Bishop Bennison moved R-2-2001: Ordination Anniversaries

Whereas the Diocese of Pennsylvania has been blessed by the ministry of many clergy who have served God's Church for many years, be it

RESOLVED: that this 218th Convention returns thanks to Almighty God for these clergy who, this year, are celebrating milestone anniversaries of their ordination or vocational diaconate.

Bishop Bennison moved R-3: On Recently Retired Clergy

Whereas, the following clergy long active in the ministry of the Church have retired since the November 2000 Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

BE IT RESOLVED: that this 218th Convention honor them for their long service in this branch of the Holy Catholic Church and pray for their continued ministry in another phase of God's work:

The Rev. Jesse F. Anderson, Jr., African Episcopal Church of St. Thomas, Overbrook
The Rt. Rev. Franklin D. Turner, Bishop Suffragan
The Rev. Ann Robb Smith, Assistant, Church of the Advocate
The Rev. Richard B. Newman, Deacon, Trinity, Buckingham
The Rev. Dr. Roger Pickering, Vicar, All Souls' Church for the Deaf
The Rev. Winfield W. Richardson, Deacon, Christ Church, Ithan
The Rev. F. Anne Ritchings, Vicar, Holy Spirit, Harleysville
The Rev. Peter P. Silvinskas, Associate, St. Paul's, West Whiteland

And be it further

RESOLVED: that a copy of this resolution be sent to the clergy named.

William C. Bullitt, Esq., Chancellor, Diocese of Pennsylvania,on Behalf of the Standing Committee, submitted R-4-2001: On a Proposed Amendment to Diocesan Canon 4: of Committees and Commissions:

RESOLVED: that the Canon 4 of the Canons of the Diocese of Pennsylvania be amended by adding a new Sec. 4.6 as follows:

Sec. 4.6. The Diocesan Review Committee

1.1.1 The Bishop and Standing Committee shall appoint a Diocesan Review Committee, which shall perform the functions and have the powers and responsibilities given to a Committee of that name by Title IV of the Canons of General Convention relating to the ecclesiastical disciplinary process.

1.1.2 The Diocesan Review Committee shall consist of three Priests or Deacons actually and canonically resident in the Diocese and two lay members of the Church actually resident in the Diocese. Each member shall serve a term of three years; with the terms to be staggered so that at least one new member of the Committee shall be appointed each year. In case of a vacancy, the Bishop and Standing Committee shall appoint an individual of the same order (lay or clerical) to fill the remainder term of the vacant position. No person may serve more than two full terms consecutively.

1.1.3 The Diocesan Review Committee shall elect a President from among its members to serve for a term of one year, with the right to succeed herself or himself.

1.1.4 No person shall at the same time serve as a member of the Diocesan Review Committee, the Ecclesiastical Trial Court or the Standing Committee.

EXPLANATION:

This amendment is being proposed at the request of the Standing Committee for the following reasons:

The Canons of General Convention were amended in 2000 to provide that functions previously assigned to the Standing Committee of the Diocese in the discipline of a Priest or Deacon would be carried out by a Diocesan Review Committee. If no such committee were established, the Standing Committee would function as the Diocesan Review Committee. The primary functions of the Committee are:

a. To hear appeals from Temporary Inhibitions issued by the Bishop, with the power by a two-thirds vote to dissolve or modify the Temporary Inhibition;

b. To receive a written Charge against a Priest or Deacon; to communicate the Charge to the Bishop and the Respondent against whom the Charge has been made; and to preliminarily consider whether to refer the matter dropped; and

c. To issue a Presentment and cause the same to be filed with the President of the Ecclesiastical Trial Court and served on the parties designated in the Canons.

The Standing Committee believes it desirable to establish this separate Committee in order to insulate the Standing Committee from the formal disciplinary process. Among other things, this will facilitate the ability of the Standing Committee to function as the Bishop's "Council of Advice" on disciplinary matters without the appearance of tainting the formal steps in the disciplinary process.

The only membership requirement prescribed by General Convention is that there be one more member of the clergy than of the laity. The other provisions proposed Sec. 4.6.2 are deemed by the Standing Committee to be desirable for the proper functioning of the Committee.

Read parts changed from R.4 – 1st sentence added. Insert changes; moved and seconded (Wood and Hart); explanation approved.

The Rev. Phyllis Taylor, Chair of the Nominating Committee, gave the report of the committee (App. 8). There were no nominations from the floor.

The motion for closing of nominations was made, seconded and approved

The Judges of Elections, Mr. Jefferson Moak, the Very Rev. William Duffy, Ms. Ruth Silver and Rev. Barbara Rivers, were welcomed. The Judges gave instructions for the first ballot, providing an explanation of the voting procedure; highest vote total = 5-year term; 2nd person 4-year term for clergy; 2 year term for laity.

There was special recognition of Jefferson Moak for his work for 22 years.

Special Order I: Presentation of the Revised Diocesan Plan, "Our Holy Experiment" Dr. Penny Cutler, Vice-Chair, and the Rev. Allan Johnson-Taylor (former member) of Diocesan Council Executive Committee

Bishop Bennison thanked Dr. Cutler and the Rev. Johnson-Taylor for their work on the Revised Our Holy Experiment.

The Rev. Allan Johnson-Taylor moved R-6-2001 Resolution on "Our Holy Experiment"

RESOLVED, that the 218th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania adopt for implementation the revision of the Diocesan Plan, "Our Holy Experiment," and call upon the Bishops, the Clergy and every member of the Baptized Faithful to work and pray and give in order to fulfill its goals through (1) Congregational Advancement, (2) Diocesan Advancement and (3) Missionary Advancement.

EXPLANATION:

In 2000, the 217th Diocesan Convention called upon the Diocesan Council to hold a series of not less than four hearings in order that the people of the diocese could participate in the creation of a diocesan plan they could all support.

From January through April 2001, Diocesan Council held five hearings, revised the Diocesan Plan, "Our Holy Experiment," presented its revised draft at a Public Conversation on June 2, made further revisions and adopted the revised plan on June 21.

Through Congregational Advancement, we plan to strengthen our existing congregations, large and small. Through Diocesan Advancement, we plan to raise up before our own members and the larger community the identity and work of our diocese as worthy of financial support. Through Missionary Advancement, we plan to do feasibility studies about the possibility of developing congregations, new and old, campus ministry, a camp and conference center, and our cathed

The motion was passed.

Mr. Craig Toedtman, Vice-Chair, Commission on Clergy Salaries & Pensions, moved RA-2002 On Clergy Financial Assistance Assessment

RESOLVED: That the clergy financial Assistance Assessment be maintained at the level of $70,000 for 2002: $50,000 of the assessment to meet basic financial needs of the clergy and the remaining $20,000 of the assessment to continue building a Sabbatical Leave Fund to help parishes/institutions that cannot alone support a sabbatical for their clergy.

Mr. Toedtman was recognized for his work. He noted that he will be passing the baton to Barbara Kelly.

Mr. Toedtman moved RB-2002, On Clergy Compensation 2002

RESOLVED: That range midpoints of cash compensation (Note 1) for full-time clergy to become effective January°1, 2002, be:

I. FULL-TIME CLERGY

SALARY RANGE MIDPOINTS FOR FULL-TIME CLERGY

Position Level (Note 2)	Key Definition	Residence Not Provided (Note 3)		Residence Provided (Note 3)
		2001	2002	2001	2002
A	Intern	$ 41,451	$ 42,902	$ 31,087	$ 32,175
B	Curate	$ 46,420	$ 48,045	$ 34,815	$ 36,034
RECTORS, VICARS, INTERIMS, PRIESTS-IN-CHARGE
C	Small Congregation	$ 52,298	$ 54,128	$ 39,223	$ 40,596
D	Medium-Sized Parish	$ 59,424	$ 61,504	$ 44,568	$ 46,128
E	Medium-Large Parish	$ 67,949	$ 70,327	$ 50,962	$ 52,746
F	Large Parish	$ 78,140	$ 80,875	$ 58,604	$ 60,655
G	Very Large Parish	$ 90,397	$ 93,561	$ 67,800	$ 70,173

Ranges shall extend 22.5% above and below the midpoint; thus, for each range, the Minimum shall be 77.5% of the midpoint and the Maximum shall be 122.5% of the midpoint.

For full-time diocesan interns starting in the middle of the calendar year, the Minimum for newly ordained deacons shall be 81% of the midpoint for Level A and for priested interns in the second year of their internship, the Minimum shall be 77.5% of the midpoint for Level B.

The cash compensation guidelines for full-time assistants shall be determined as follows:

Position Level B applies to those assistant positions usually filled by newly ordained priests. The Rector and Vestry should determine the appropriate level for those assistant positions with greater responsibility than that of a Level B position, and the guidelines for that level shall then apply. An "assistant," for purposes of this resolution, is defined as an ordained priest serving a congregation in a capacity other than that of priest in charge of that congregation.

RESOLVED FURTHER:

II. PART-TIME CLERGY

That total compensation (Note 4) for priests who work part-time (other than as supply priests) shall be proportional to the total compensation for a priest holding the same position on a full-time basis. The proportion should be equal to the relative effectiveness expected of the part-time work as compared with that of a comparable full-time priest.

RESOLVED FURTHER:

III. SUPPLY CLERGY

That 2002 guidelines for priests who supply or cover particular services in a congregation be as follows (Note 5):

PER DAY CASH COMPENSATION GUIDELINES

Compensation Range	Single Service	Multiple Services
Minimum	$ 92	$ 119
Usual Range	$ 104 — $ 174	$ 131 — $ 218
Maximum	$ 194	$ 248

Explanatory Notes:

(Note 1) "Cash compensation" is defined as cash salary plus non-mandated, compensation-related payments that a congregation may make to, or on behalf of its clergy, e.g., Social Security, supplemental annuity, or home-equity payments. Cash compensation does not include any reimbursement for expenses, e.g., for automobile use or continuing education.

(Note 2) The Position Level for a rector/vicar/interim/priest-in-charge is based upon the corresponding Congregational Size Category, which is based upon two measures: (1) the size of the congregation (a function of its attendance and number of pledges), and (2) the financial strength of a congregation (a function of its income and expenditures). The Financial Index is updated each year to maintain general consistency with the People Index. Indices for each factor are derived from data in parochial reports. The greater of the People Index and the Financial Index determines the position level for clergy in charge, provided that no congregation's category will change more than two levels in any year.

The table below related Congregational Size Categories to the corresponding People and Financial Indices for 2002:

CONGREGATIONAL SIZE CATEGORIES FOR CLERGY COMPENSATION

SizeCategory	People Index 2002		Financial Index (Thousands of Dollars) 2002
	Minimum	Maximum	Minimum	Maximum

(Note 3) The 2002 salary figures for full-time clergy have been changed from the 2001 figures to reflect an increase of 3.50 percent based on the cost of living increase for the 12-month period ending June°30, 2001. Each vestry should designate by resolution an adequate, specific portion of cash compensation to be "housing allowance" in order to permit covered clergy to exclude from (Federal) taxable income any housing costs that are paid directly from gross income. (Housing costs include furnishings, mortgage payments, all utilities, and any items normally covered by rent.)

(Note 4) "Total compensation" is defined as cash compensation (as defined in Note 1) plus provisions for pension and for health and life insurance if required in accordance with Note 5.

(Note 5) Cash compensation for supply clergy is based on full-time compensation. It reflects an increase of 3.50 percent from 2001, which is derived from Cost-of-Living data prepared by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. (The table is based on the proposition that there are 263 working days per year, and that no payment is due for days not worked.) A congregation is obligated to pay Church Pension Fund assessments for clergy employed for three months or more and who earn $°50 or more per month, unless already on pension.

The policy statements have been approved by previous Conventions and directed by Convention to be placed in delegate packets for their information. They are included in this Journal as Appendix 6.

Report of the Treasurer RE-18 (attached to this report as Appendix ?) was given by Mr. Clarence Armbrister, Treasurer, and accepted.

The Rev. Dr. Charles Wissink, Chair of the Ecumenical and Interfaith Commission, gave RE 21, the commission's report, which is attached to these minutes as Appendix 25.

The report of the Finance & Property Committee RE-8 (attached to this report as Appendix 19) was given by Mr. Kenneth Werner, Esq., Chair and Mr. Peter Kreek.

Thanks to Arlene; plea for new members for the committee. Recognition of the format of the new narrative budget; thanks to Meg Cave for her work.

Mr. Peter Kreek, Chair, Program Budget Committee, moved R-BUD-2002, On the Proposed 2002 Program Budget .

Chandler Joyner reported on the state of our investments:

The Church Foundation has performed better than the S&P 500. As of 9/30/01, the S&P had declined by 27%; the Church Foundation decline was less than 7% due to investment policies that had been instituted; The Blended Index is another benchmark for comparison. It declined 12.25%, the Church Foundation declined less than 7%. The third benchmark is State Street Bank ranking. Church Foundation's results were better than 84% of all money managers.

Worst-case scenario projected is receipt of 93% of income projections.

Special Order II: Welcoming of Ecumenical Partners

Bishop Bennison recognized Bishop Roy Almquist, Southeastern Pennsylvania Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Recognition of growing relationship and friendship and connection between the Episcopal Diocese and the ECLA. There is a move beyond just coming together for thanksgiving to a true united understanding as we "live into full communion". This is not a merger, but an opportunity to understand each others' language. There is no other place in the country where more is happening between the ECLA and the Episcopal Church. It is business as cooperation, not business as usual, including strategically looking a new church starts, the seminary, Gordon Lathrop's role at the Cathedral, Bishop's Advisory Council with Bishop Bennison. In addition, there is a regional chaplaincy program with the United Methodists.

Bishop Bennison recognized Mr. John Stoesz, Executive Director of the Metropolitan Christian Council of Philadelphia, who was not present.

Bishop Bennison recognized The Rev. Gary Harke, Executive Director for the PA Council of Churches.

Recognition of Nancy Ritter as Secretary off the Council; the sense of ecumentalism is especially important since September 11th, cooperative ecumentalism is done well in Pennsylvania, but we need to risk opening ourselves to renewal and to make us mindful of the needs of others.

Recognition: The Rev. Roger Pickering; Sandra Pickering; Barbara Irving and Doris Connor; (the Rev. Charles Wissink was not present at the time of the presentations).

The Judges of Elections gave the results of the First Ballot:

Elected to Standing Committee, The Rev. Mary E. Laney and the Rev. Robin P. Martin, Clergy; Dr. Pamela Darling, Lay.

Elected to Commission on Clergy Salaries & Pensions, The Rev. John R. Francis, Clergy; Dorothy S. Orr, Lay.

Elected as Delegate to 2003 General Convention, The Rev. Dr. John E. Midwood, Jr., Clergy; Christopher Hart, Lay.

Elected Church Attorney, Everett Gillison, Esq.

Mr. Moak & other Judges gave instructions for the Second Ballot.

NOONDAY PRAYERS The Rt. Rev. Clarence Coleridge presiding with the United Thank Offering Ingathering and the Presentation of the United Thank Offering: Ruth Kirk and Marie Swayze.

SECOND BUSINESS SESSION

The Judges of Elections gave the results of the Second Ballot.

Elected as Delegate to 2003 General Convention, the Rev. Mary E. Laney, Clergy.

Mr. Moak & other Judges gave instructions for the Third Ballot.

Special Order III: Congregational Development The Very Rev. Dr. Samuel Adu-Andoh and The Very Rev. Robert Tate, for the Deans' Council

Last Spring – charged with the development of Congregational Development; development of 3 new congregations and at least 3x as much to be spent on existing congregations; reviewed demographic information; deans asked for recommendations on which existing congregations needed special assistance and where new start-up churches were needed; this winter – cost estimates will be developed with recommendations to Diocesan Council in winter; Diocesan Council will determine which recommendations should be woven into strategic plan

This is a work in progress, but is the status of our thinking.

1. A key part of Our Holy Experiment is continued commitment to DCCM — to be strengthened although they are not technically under the Congregational Development committee; but want every parishioner to have a sense of attachment to these important missions.
2. new start of missions (3) at $1.5 million each; Diocesan funding in the form of 1/3 through capital campaign; exploring grant, raising by congregations; screening sites; in consultation with ELCA.
3. Through Our Holy Experiment, award 10-15 strategic grants; are identifying and prioritizing projects; total $1.5 million; fund through capital campaign; specific projects and amounts by Diocesan Council.
4. Congregational development revolving fund created; Diocesan or committee review requests; initially fund at $ 3M from capital campaigns, but additional funds from endowment and parishes.

If approved by council of deans and cluster; total cost – total $ 6 M. Would appreciate your reactions and comments.

Special Order IV: Report on the Cathedral: The Very Rev. Richard Giles

Thanks to Paul Harris; Cathedral staff and Chapter for upholding the vision

Albert – the boxer, a symbol of freedom and space; many of you have shared your excitment about the new Cathedral space even before it is completed

Bishop Bill Fry – the people resembled the message of the good news; no disconnect.

New space will resemble the message it proclaims; no disconnect between spoken word and space; we are a community, not an audience; it will be the symbolic seat of the whole church; importance of baptismal font representative of the covenant; Bishop's seat emerges from the people of God, not distant; pilgrim people encountering God on a journey; so altar and chairs moveable; reminding us of our roots;

The Cathedral is blessed by arrival of Gordon; CCM is made tangible; are on a journey together; foundation of Phila Liturgical Institute—resource to all of you; (thanks to Bishop White Library Fdn to make hiring of administrator and re-ordering of liturgical works from Stevick Library to ground floor; reminder —entire renovation born by Cathedral chapter; two ways your help and participation is essential—furnish the space to a higher standard— invite participation to help with the purchase of furnishings; thanks to St. Thomas, Whitemarsh, for their gift; the re-opened Cathedral will remain open all day, every day, so will need volunteers to welcome visitors.

We have much to do together to make dream a reality, but recognize our great team throughout the growing congregation and the Diocese.

Let nothing stop you from enjoying this party. Rededication on May 9, 2002

Bishop Bennison asked for recognition of outgoing Cathedral Chapter members: Tom McClellan; Nancy Stroh; Bob Mac Beth; Buck Scott, & Chapter Nominees.

Secretary of Convention requested confirmation of Nominees to be elected to the Cathedral Chapter: Michael Pearson, Glenn Ruppe Melnyke, Craig Toedtman, Buck Scott. This was approved.

The Judges of Elections gave the results of the Third Ballot.

Elected to the Standing Committee: Mary-Louise M. Bulmer, Lay.

Elected as delegate to the 2003 General Convention: the Rev. Rodger Broadley, Clergy; Jo Ann B. Jones, Esq., Lay.

Mr. Moak & other Judges gave instructions for the Fourth Ballot.

Special Order V: Report on the Camp/Conference Center The Rev. Canon David Thomas, Chair, Camp/Study Retreat Center Study Committee, Jeff Hayes, FAIA, A.J. Olson, and Sue Tielkmeijer, Camp E.L.M.O.

Determine commitment and interest of Diocese at what size camp is appropriate; clergy have expressed how road to ordination so often began with a camping experience; our current options are very limited (2 weeks Camp ELMO); explore what is feasible; each parish/vestry will design questionnaire to determine level of interest and commitment to retreat or camp center someplace; still in exploratory stage; done with professional assistance.

The Judges of Elections gave the results of the Fourth Ballot.

Elected as delegates to the 2003 General Convention, The Rev.Canon Nancy H. Wittig, Clergy; Jane R. Cosby, Lay.

Move – Rev. Duffy, seconded; vote by acclamation.

The Judges of Elections gave instructions for the Fifth Ballot.

Special Order VI: Bishop Bennison, the Rev. Frank Toia, Welcoming Compañeros of our Companion Diocese: Chair, Companion Diocese Committee, the Rt. Rev. Armando Guerra, Sandra de Monterroso, Chair of Comite de Companorism and Tony Marroquinn, Committee and Lay Leader of Iglesia Episcopal San Jose el Exodo.

The Rev. Frank Toia spoke of our Companion relationship:

That which is really important is the same; we are one with sisters and brothers around the world; Expression of the unity for past six years is the companion relationship between Diocese of Pennsylvania and Diocese of Guatemala; United we share is at least as important as it has ever been since 9/11. Deeper sense of identification with brothers and sisters; who have lived with fear (and reality) of sudden violence all their lives; fragile economy of Guatemala has been struck; Encountering each other and Christ in each other has been a live changing event.

To each parish a gift of coffee from Guatemala to celebrate our relationship.

Rev. Frank P. Toia, Chair, Companion Diocese Committee, moved R-7-2001 On Renewing Companion Relationship with Diocese of Guatemala:

RESOLVED: That, the Convention of the Diocese of Guatemala concurring, the Diocese of Pennsylvania and the Diocese of Guatemala enter into a third three-year term of our companionship relationship.

EXPLANATION:

The year 2001 marks the third and final year of the second three-year term in the companion relationship with the Diocese of Guatemala. Thirteen parishes in the Diocese of Pennsylvania presently maintain active and ongoing relationships with one or more congregations in the Diocese of Guatemala and four additional Pennsylvania parishes are actively exploring creating partnership relationships at this time. In addition, the Companion Diocese Committee, together with its counterpart in the Diocese of Guatemala, undertakes more comprehensive projects. Both the Bishop of Pennsylvania and the Bishop of Guatemala have indicated their approval of the continuation of the relationship for an additional three years.

The mission of the Companion Diocese Relationship is as follows:

Through the love of God we are all made one family in Christ. As companion dioceses, we covenant to walk together on our common journey, learning from each other as we share our spiritual, human and material resources at all levels. As companions on the journey, we will encourage and pray for one another and inspire each other in the work we are given to do as Christ's agents in the world about us.

The Judges of Elections gave the results of the fifth ballot: Jane R. Cosby was elected lay delegate to 2003 General Convention.

Special Order VII: Introduction of New Clergy: Canon Jill Swans, Canon for Deployment. (RE-15, attached to these minutes as Appendix 28).

Introduction of Seminarians: The Rev. Carol Anthony, Canon for Vocations from the Diocese of Pennsylvania (RE-16, Appendix 27)

Introduction of Servant Year Participants: The Rev. Barry Vaughn, Program Director: Keith Anderson, Grace Evans, Leslie Zimmerscheid, Brian Smith.

Peter Kreek, Chair, Program Budget Committee, submitted R-5-2001: On a Formula for Allocating Assessments

RESOLVED: That the 218th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania adopt as a Standing Resolution a formula for allocating the assessments based upon the Net Disposable Budget Income of each parish as it relates to the sum of all parishes' Net Disposable Income multiplied by the total assessment amounts.

EXPLANATION:

Diocesan Canon 7.2.1 directs that each year the Standing Committee shall determine the amount needed for the support of the episcopate in the Diocese during the ensuing year. It further directs that the amount to be assessed upon the parishes, missions, and chapels of the Diocese be done in such a manner, as the Convention shall from time to time direct. In the recent past the method described in this resolution has been adopted each year. The purpose of this resolution is to adopt the method permanently until Convention shall choose to change it.

The resolution was approved.

William Stuart-Whistler and Nicholas Bisaccia, for the Justice, Peace and Enviroment Committee submittedR-8-2001: On Nuclear "Hair Trigger Alert"

RESOLVED: That this Convention urge the United States Government to take immediate steps to eliminate the "Hair-Trigger Alert" status of its nuclear weapons systems.

RESOLVED: That this resolution be submitted by the Secretary of this Convention to the President of the United States, the Secretaries of State and Defense and to the Chairpersons of the House and Senate Armed Services Committees, the Pennsylvania Senators, and the Congress people from the five-county Philadelphia area.

EXPLANATION:

"Hair-Trigger Alert" status has existed for over forty years during the period of the strongest US-USSR nuclear threat. It consists of requiring land- and sea-based nuclear weapons systems to fire all their missiles within a specified time upon notification of a missile attack on the United States. As an example, this time is fifteen minutes for the sea-based Trident submarine missile system. The system is extremely susceptible to accidental notifications of such an attack. Retaining US and Russian weapons on hair-trigger alert holds the people of all nations hostage with the imminent threat of nuclear annihilation.

Policies concerning nuclear weapons raise profound questions about our moral responsibilities, the integrity of God's creation, and human destiny. These moral questions persist as long as the threat of nuclear war continues. The de-alerting of all nuclear weapons is a prudent and necessary step toward eliminating the threat of nuclear war.

In the year 2000, this Diocese's Convention endorsed the statement that we must not abrogate our international treaty commitments, especially the Anti-Ballistic Missile Treaty, which allows no weapons in Space.

Accidental nuclear war remains the greatest threat to humanity today, and avoiding one hangs by a slender thread. It could happen through human error, system failure, irrational acts or by the simple working of the laws of chance. Many people today tend to ignore the dangers of nuclear weapons because the "Evil Empire" is gone. They do so, however, at great peril. Only by eliminating "Hair-Trigger" nuclear defense can we lessen the possibility of an accidental nuclear catastrophe.

APPENDIX 2: DC 2.9 CANON OF COURTESY

Clergy canonically resident in this diocese but not entitled to vote in the Convention, clergy of other dioceses of this Church, Candidates for Holy Orders in this Church, wardens of missions other than those entitled to send Deputies, religious professed in Orders (according to the Canons of the General Convention) who are resident in this Diocese with the consent of the Bishop, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, including the lay members of the Standing Committee, the officers of the Diocesan Council, the Executive Officer of Episcopal Community Services, and the Executive Vice-President of the Church Foundation, though not members, shall be admitted to seats and have voice in the Convention, but not the right to vote.

APPENDIX 3: SR26 CONCERNING RELIGIOUS PROFESSED IN ORDERS

BE IT RESOLVED, that following the custom of past Diocesan Conventions the 217th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania extends floor privileges to all religious professed in Orders, according to Episcopal Church Canon III.27, who are resident in this Diocese with the consent of the Bishop;

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the extending of this courtesy become standing Resolution #26 of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, effective January, 1981. (10/24/80)

APPENDIX 4: SO IV.6 YOUTH REPRESENTATION

Each parish shall have the right to approve two youth representatives who shall have the right to sit with the deputies from their parish and who shall have the privilege of speaking but not voting on matters coming before the Convention. (Adopted, October 20, 1972)

APPENDIX 5: SR 25 CIRCULATION AND DISSEMINATION OF MATERIAL AT CONVENTION

BE IT RESOLVED, that beginning with the 196th Diocesan Convention and in accordance with the practice of Diocesan Convention since the 186th Diocesan Convention, October 17-18, 1969, circulation on the floor of Convention of advertisements and literature not relevant to the business of the Convention will not be permitted; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that any material relevant to the business of Convention be submitted to the Secretary of Convention for decision as to the appropriate manner of dissemination and that no material may be circulated at Convention without the approval of the Secretary of Convention. (10/19/79)

APPENDIX 6: APPROVED POLICY STATEMENTS AS TO CLERGY COMPENSATION

These policy statements have been approved by previous Conventions.

POLICY ON AUTO ALLOWANCE AND OTHER EXPENSES

The policy on allowances and reimbursements for work-related expenses be reaffirmed as follows:

All "business" expenses, e.g., those expenses which would routinely be reimbursed in secular employment, shall be reimbursed (and provided in adequate allowances in congregation budgets).

Where personal autos are used, the automobile allowance should be either:

1) the Internal Revenue Service published standard (which currently is a mileage allowance relating to miles of use), plus reimbursement of tolls and parking fees, or

2) a budgeted monthly allowance designed to cover the actual cost of automobile operations.

All vestries and clergy are advised to maintain records of actual work-related cost of the automobile in order to arrive at a fair level of reimbursement.

Explanations: Clergy, like laity, should not be expected to pay from their own resources work-related expenses. These expenses are the congregation's and should be included in the congregation's budget.

ON SALARY POLICY

The policy of this diocese shall be that the range midpoint is the appropriate salary for a thoroughly competent incumbent of significant tenure (five years or more) and that merit increases thereafter shall be added to cost-of-living increases, as warranted by periodic review.

Explanation: This policy has been in existence since 1975, and is the basis for establishing salary ranges.

APPENDIX 7: STANDING RULES OF ORDER

1. Reports of Committees and Commissions shall be received without motion to receive them, and it shall be understood that all special committees are discharged upon making their Reports, unless the convention recommits matters to them for their future consideration, or unless they report their work unfinished.
2. No member shall speak more than once in the same debate, without leave of the House.
3. When a debatable motion is before the Convention, those who wish to speak in support of, or against, the motion shall identify themselves as being "Pro" or "Con." After the mover has spoken to the motion, the Chair shall recognize a speaker in opposition, then a speaker in favor, and so on in like order.
4. Except by the vote of a majority of Convention, no resolution shall be debated longer than twenty (20) minutes.
5. Each individual speaker to a resolution is limited to three (3) minutes.
6. The microphone will be turned off at the end of each speaker's time, after a ten-second warning.
7. A question being once determined shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate during the same meeting of the Convention, unless with the consent of two-thirds of the House.
8. No motion shall be considered as before the House unless it be seconded and reduced to writing when required.
9. The question on a motion for adjournment shall be taken before any other and without debate.
10. If a motion to lay on the table an amendment or a substitute be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment or substitute had been offered.
11. When the question is upon the passage of a debatable resolution, amendments, or substitute, the mover thereof may in all cases be allowed one minute's time in which to close a debate.

12. When a motion to lay upon the table is made and seconded the mover of the original motion shall have such time as the presiding officer may permit to present reasons why the motion to lay upon the table should not prevail.
13. The doctrines of Parliamentary Law, as set forth in the treatise of Robert on Parliamentary Law, are adopted as authoritative expositions of parliamentary practice as far as applicable to the conditions of the meetings of the Diocesan Convention.
14. These rules of order may be suspended or permanently changed by a two-thirds vote, and not otherwise.

APPENDIX 11: 'CONSTRUIR DE NEUVO MI MUNDO' OR 'BUILD ANEW MY WORLD': ANNUAL ADDRESS BY THE RT. REV. CHARLES E. BENNISON, JR., TO THE 218TH CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA, EPISCOPAL ACADEMY, MERION, PA., NOVEMBER 3, 2001

Each builder must choose with care how to build...for no one can lay any foundation other than the one that has been laid; that foundation is Jesus Christ. (1 Corinthians 3:10b-11)

Because of September 11, this Convention, like our homes, our jobs, our agendas, our priorities, our congregations and everything else in our lives, is – or, at least, can be, should be – different. On that day our world as we knew it came to an end. We must now build anew. We can, if we like, endeavor to build on the old foundations and replicate what we knew in the past. Or we can build anew God's world – not only physically, but also socially, politically, economically, theologically – on the only foundation on which we can ever truly build, and that foundation is Jesus Christ. Christ, according to Paul, is "the power of God and the wisdom of God" for those who receive "the word of the cross," that announces power as weakness and weakness as power and the cross of Christ as the place where we meet the powerful God.

In the aftermath of the destruction and devastation and deaths in New York, in Western Pennsylvania, in Washington, in Afghanistan and in the anthrax-infected airs of our nation, I believe that God is calling us to be builders, to follow the Nazarene carpenter, to be co-workers with the crucified Christ, to take the weakness we now experience and find in it power, and to take the debris of that day and build anew. Look, this cross is planted at Ground Zero. It is not pretty. But, notice, discarded lumber and wood were used to make it. In his right hand the Crucified One holds a hammer. The five nails are not in his hands and feet and side, but in his carpenter's belt, ready to be used again. On the crossbar are God's words to us, in Spanish: "Construir de nuevo mi mundo" – "Build anew my world." This cross proclaims that, as in all things, so even in the horror of September 11, God works for good for those who love him, opening our hearts to hear his call to us to take the debris from that day and build anew his world.

The "word of the cross," Paul says, constitutes a "secret and hidden wisdom, which God decreed before the ages for our glory." Our glory? This morning's Philadelphia Inquirer carries headlines about the greatest job losses in 20 years. The stock market is way down. Economic insecurity is pervasive. We lost over 5,000 of our fellow citizens on September 11. Over 50,000,000 were directly affected by personal connection to those lost. Our people in uniform are now deployed for war and standing in harm's way in a strange and dangerous land. "Our glory"? – how can that be?

Well, in Paul's words, "consider your own call, brothers and sisters: not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. But God chose what is foolish in this world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak and despised in this world to shame the strong."

Consider, too, what happened on September 11 when Todd Bremmer and Tom Burnett, those two men on United Airlines Flight 93 over Pittsburgh told their wives over their cell phones that, facing imminent death, they were going to "do something" to foil the terrorists' plans; when 300 policemen and firemen went up the down staircase at the World Trade Center, in order to save those trapped inside; when thousand upon thousands gave heroically and sacrificially, manifesting a glory the likes of which they perhaps never guessed they had.

Or consider, as Paul reports, "the grace of God that has been given to the churches of Macedonia, for during a severe ordeal of affliction, their abundant joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. For...they voluntarily gave according to their means, and even beyond their means, begging us earnestly for the privilege of sharing in this ministry to the poor."

I know that because of September 11 many of you are worried about your personal budgets, your congregational budgets, our diocesan budget. As for me, I am not worried. Almost 58 years of age, ordained over 33 years, I have been through this before. What I know is that during this season we shall, as we always have, do what we have to do. If we have to, we shall eat beans and rice instead of steak and lobster. We shall take care of each other and, even more, those beyond our walls. We shall get through this hard time. We shall by God's grace be all right, and, indeed, through "this severe ordeal of affliction," we shall become more one than we ever have in a very long time. And as we saw in the cases of our own conversions, of the heroes of September 11, of the Macedonians, we shall know glory.

Thus, the "word of the cross" is not only for our survival. It is also for our salvation, and not for ours only, but for the salvation of the whole world – Buddhist, Hindu, Muslim, Jewish, Christian. Because they did not understand this crucified Christ, theirs was merely "a wisdom of this age." The "wisdom of this age" is not every human knowledge about any given topic like, say, physics or medicine. Rather, because Paul says that "the world did not know God through wisdom," the "wisdom of this world" is clearly a human wisdom about God; it is theology – theology that looks for God's power to be displayed in forceful signs or proofs of power, or in the successful establishment of theocratic, territorial governments. By contrast, the word about a weak cross proclaims that God is absolute and sovereign over all human theology, such that we can never boast over theology in a way which would divide us from one another.

The church in Corinth, of course, was divided. Embracing the "wisdom of this world," its members were saying, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas." But we come to know God's wisdom, Paul says, not through the human minds of apostles like these, but through God's Spirit. That is why the word, "God," occurs 10 times in 1 Corinthians 2:6-16. Faced with the Corinthians' traipsing after this or that apostle, Paul calls out, not "Paul," not "Apollos," not "Cephas," but "God, God, God, God, God, God, God, God, God, God"! In genuine theology, he claims, God speaks, not the theologians. And God's word is the word about his Christ delivered up to a cross so that we who in our strengths were once divided can now in our weaknesses be one.

As Paul sees it, moreover, though this word is God's, it is not to be treated as an axiom that triumphantly overrides every question. Rather, just as Christ was delivered up to the cross, so this word is delivered up to our human empirical scrutiny. You and I are to decide for ourselves whether we want to acknowledge the power of this word. Paul says in effect: Based on your own experience with the way in which this word, in the process of effecting your conversion, of saving thousands of lives on September 11, and of making generous the hearts of the Macedonians, overturned worldly wisdom and strength, you decide if this word is wisdom and power for you.

Just as in the case of the divisions within the church in Corinth, so throughout the ethical dilemmas he faces Paul depends for his judgment on "the word of the cross," the message about "Jesus Christ and him crucified." As for scripture, it is striking how small a role it plays in shaping the apostle's ethical counsels. There are just five places where an explicit scriptural citation is in some way connected with an ethical counsel, and then usually in a very ambiguous, general or indirect way, and sometimes in contradiction of another part of scripture. His moral judgment is informed, neither by scripture nor "by human wisdom," but by "words taught by the spirit." Nowhere, moreover, does he claim that his directives are "the will of God." He basically appeals to the Corinthians to adhere to mere cultural values and social conventions with which he himself feels comfortable, and he frankly admits that his directives are his. He would well understand the old joke that what holds the Anglican Communion together is Wippell's, the shop in Exeter, England, where our clergy like to buy their clerical garb. He was, in that sense, a good Anglican.

Enter Richard Hooker, who more than any other shaped our Anglican tradition. Perhaps because he was plagued by frailty and poor health all his brief 47 years, perhaps because it seems he did not much know his mother, perhaps because his father was off in Ireland most of his childhood, perhaps because he never earned a doctorate or ascended the ranks of the ecclesiastical hierarchy, perhaps because he sort of bombed in the only "corporate-size church" of which he was a rector, the Temple Church in London, perhaps because his happiest days were spent as the pastor of a little village parish near Canterbury where he knew well the aches and disappointments of the human heart, perhaps because he buried his only two sons, Richard Hooker, like Paul, ultimately knew the "wisdom of God" only in "the word of the cross." He was, consequently, suspicious of any overbearing theological stridency or earnestness or extremism.

When Calvinists in England argued that scripture is the only source of authority, for example, he argued that authority in the church is based on what he called "the laws of ecclesiastical polity," of which scripture is the primary, but not the only source. He did not agree with Calvinists that all law comes from God or that God revealed his law only in scripture. Law is whatever reason defines as good for those upon whom it acts. God is reasonable, he claimed, and has reasonably created the reasonableness of all creation, and has given us reason with which to see his reasonableness in the world. Even where scripture could be used to understand the laws, its meaning, he argued, is not usually self-evident. Scripture, too, can be understood only through the exercise of reason exercised, not as each individual's private opinion, but in the communal discernment of the church, informed by the interpretation of its scholars, over time.

I well remember from my days as a parish priest in Atlanta a fundamentalist in the Georgia Legislature arguing against a state-wide library construction bill on the grounds that there is only one Good Book and, therefore, no need for buildings to house others. It is a short distance from that attitude to the scenes of young boys massed together and rocking back and forth hour after hour today in Kabul inhaling the Arabic words of the Qu'ran, and nothing else. Richard Hooker would have none of it.

Where the Calvinist extremists saw things in black and white, Hooker had an irenical message of toleration, cooperation, inclusiveness. He thought that in heaven we might have utter clarity, but here on earth we must learn to live with ambiguity, tolerating one another's differences of opinion. Otherwise we would know no peace. "No one can tell," he wrote, "who is a true believer and who is inwardly unbelieving; no one can tell, except God Whose eyes alone behold the secret disposition of all men's hearts....We whose eyes are too dim to behold the inner person must leave the secret judgment of our own hearts." There, "all...are welcomed as members of the Church so long as they conform outwardly to the forms and customs of our religious practice." Again, we are back to Wippell's.

Ours, to be sure, is just a little tiny church on a very large global stage. But as Episcopalians practicing our religion in the Apostle Paul's and Richard Hooker's tradition of toleration, cooperation and inclusiveness, you and I have an indispensable role to play on that stage now that scriptural fundamentalism is on the rise. Make no mistake: The terrorist attacks of September 11 were essentially motivated by the same fundamentalism that led to the assassination of Anwar Sadat, the fatwa against Salman Rushdie, the destruction of the ancient Buddhist statues, and the Taliban's persecution of women and homosexuals.

By its blind recourse to texts embraced as literal truth, its injunction to follow the commandments of God before anything else, its elevation of dogma over reason, judgment or even conscience, fundamentalism provides a sense of meaning and direction in an increasingly disorienting postmodern world. Indeed, if you believe that there is an eternal afterlife for those who obey God and eternal damnation for those who do not, and that the sin of others can corrupt and cause you and many more to sin, then it logically follows that purging the world of such sin by killing sinners secures not only your salvation, but also theirs. Thus, Christians burned sinners at the stake during Europe's religious wars among Christians in the 17th century. Thus, Islamic extremists ignited conflagrations at the World Trade Center and the Pentagon. Both used fire both to purge the world of sin and to purify the sinners for salvation.

Because of September 11, everything is – or, at least, can be, should be – different. Millions have experienced as never before in their lives what, by our witness, they could come to know as "the word of the cross" and, consequently, "the power and wisdom of God." Heirs to the Apostle Paul's and Richard Hooker's tradition of toleration, cooperation and inclusiveness, we have an indispensable role to play amidst increasing scriptural fundamentalism and extremism. As we build God's world anew, let us glory only in the cross of Christ, by which the world has been crucified to us, and we to the world. For...

In the cross of Christ we glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

APPENDIX 12: RE1:ADVOCACY, SERVICE AND JUSTICE COMMISSION

This has been a year of reflection for the Advocacy, Service, and Justice Commission. Prior to the 217th Convention, the commission and its member committees were gearing up to implement their part of the "Holy Experiment." When the document as presented to Convention was defeated, it put the commission and its committees in "limbo". However, we were prayerfully continuing our mission, which seeks to encourage and enable congregations and individuals to do advocacy, service and justice ministries.

This year has seen the retirement of Linwood Geiger, assistant to the bishop for Advocacy, Service, and Justice. To replace him, Bishop Bennison has appointed the Rev. Mark Preece. Mark is a newly ordained deacon in the diocese. In addition to Linwood Geiger's departure, Sandra Pickering resigned as chairperson for the Committee to Combat Racism. Sandra, along with her committee members has continued to keep the sin of racism in forefront of discussions in this diocese. I thank Sandra for her many years of service and wish her well as she continues to serve in other capacities. Under Sandra's leadership, the Committee to Combat Racism fostered the Anti Racism Training for clergy and diocesan leaders. The committee has also been instrumental in the Martin Luther King Breakfast, which this year was held at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill. For those who attended, we were treated to an inspiring keynote address given by Ms. Lucia Herndon, local columnist for The Philadelphia Inquirer and member of Calvary, Germantown. The new chairperson of the committee is The Rev. Richard W. Smith.

Regretfully, this is the last year for the Refugee Resettlement Committee and the Diocesan Furniture Committee. Barbara Irving coordinates both committees. Barbara has been the coordinator of the Refugee Committee since 1987, after sponsoring her first refugee family in 1975. The Refugee Committee, chaired by Ms. Elizabeth Forester did not take in any new families this year however; Barbara continued the usual year of follow-up as required by the national refugee program. The Diocesan Furniture Committee, chaired by Nancy Iredale is in the process of depleting its inventory. Thank you to all of you who have donated furniture and money to this very important ministry. Additionally, thank you to all of the committee members, past and present, which have enabled this diocese to make life a bit more comfortable for those in need of basic household furnishings.

The Justice, Peace, and Environment Committee, Jamie Lennan, chairperson, has had a very exciting year. At last year's convention the committee presented two resolutions that were passed. The first was on Nuclear War in Space and the other on the Sprawl Phenomena. Several of their members participated in the Racial Reconciliation Conference and the annual meeting of the Episcopal Urban Caucus. The committee also participated in the Under One Roof Conference, with a workshop led by Mark McGuigan of Green Peace Alliance and Tom Sandusky, a current committee member. Plans are underway for developing a curriculum for young people and a poster event for the next Under One Roof Conference, relating to justice, peace, and the environment.

Nancy Ritter is the chairperson for the Committee on Aging. The committee continues to serve as a resource on aging, especially in regard to giving information on retirement and nursing homes. A task force of the committee under the direction of the Rev. Stephen Billings prepared a workshop on "God's Gifts Grow on You" for the Under One Roof Conference. The committee is now regrouping and hopes to offer another workshop in 2002.

Shirley Smith chairs the Task Force on the Church and the Disabled. The committee meets on a regular basis and continues to focus on raising awareness of and articulating educational issues related to persons with disabilities. Especially in the area of architectural and attitudinal barriers as they pertain to full participation in congregational life.

The Rev. John Simpson chairs the AIDS Committee. This committee has been active in the past, but with the AIDS epidemic not receiving as much attention as it once had, the requests for information from the committee has dwindled. The committee however continues to function as a resource when called upon and is in the process of completing an AIDS quilt commemorating the lives of persons of the diocese or family members who have died from AIDS and HIV. The highlight of this year was the committee's donation of $5,000.00 to an AIDS organization in Africa.

The Addictions and Recovery Committee, as chaired by the Rev. Mike Haines, is another committee that, due to the lack of emphasis placed on the problem nationally, has not been utilized as once hoped. The committee continues to meet as needed and is always available to individuals and congregations in the Diocese as a resource.

In conclusion, as we look forward to the adopting of "Our Holy Experiment," the work of the Advocacy, Service, and justice Commission, along with its member committees will continue. The committees are always looking for new members, who can inspire and communicate their goals and mission.

I would like to thank all of the committee chairpersons, committee members and ASJC members at large who have continued to keep the committees active during a time of change and uncertainty. We look forward to the future in helping the diocese to implement "Our Holy Experiment."

George C. Whitfield, Jr., Chairperson

APPENDIX 13: RE2: COMMISSION ON CLERGY SALARIES AND PENSIONS

CLERGY SALARIES

The Commission recommended clergy cash compensation ranges and midpoints, which were adopted by the 217th Diocesan Convention (RB-2000). Approved ranges were communicated to congregations in November 2000.

Clergy Compensation questionnaires were sent to each congregation as part of the annual analysis of actual pay versus ranges. Responding congregations met the minimum salary requirements, and the majority of clergy with five or more years of tenure are compensated at or above the midpoint of their respective ranges.

The Commission has developed guidelines regarding Housing and Equity Allowance for Clergy. These guidelines will be distributed with the approved compensation ranges in November 2001.

CLERGY FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

The Commission reviewed and acted upon requests for financial assistance throughout the year. Grants totaling $53,241.60 were made during the reporting period. Loan repayments totaled $800.00, leaving an outstanding balance of $14,071.19. As in the past, the Commission transferred $20,000.00 to the Clergy Sabbatical Fund.

Cash reserves remain very low, as demand continues to be extremely high. Commission members continue to work with Diocesan staff to attempt to resolve systemic issues.

Assessments to be paid The Church Pension Fund were monitored to ensure that participating clergy payments are timely.

CLERGY BENEFITS

The Commission continued to balance increasing benefit costs, while protecting participants from exorbitant expense and minimizing the cost of premiums paid by congregations and participants. Contingency funds for long term disability, mental health rider and insurance co-pays were monitored to ensure optimum levels.

Craig B. Toedtman, Vice-Chair

APPENDIX 14: RE3: COMMITTEE ON INCORPORATIONS

The Committee on Incorporations submits the following Report to the 218th Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

The government of all Episcopal Churches in the United States is pursuant to and subject to the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America ("The Episcopal Church"), and the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania ("Diocese of Pennsylvania").

The Canons for the government of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, Canon 1, Sec. 1.4, provides for the amendment or alteration of articles of incorporation of any church or congregation, and provides as follows:

"SEC. 1.4 Amendment of Articles of Incorporation

1.4.1 No proposed amendment or alteration of the articles of incorporation of any church or congregation which has been admitted into union with the Convention shall become effective until the proposed amendment or alteration shall be submitted to the Committee on Incorporation and, after report thereon by that Committee, has been approved by the Convention; provided that proposed amendment to articles of incorporation which conform substantially with the Model Articles of Incorporation adopted by the Convention of 1991, or any amendment thereof, and which are approved by the Committee on Incorporation need not be submitted to Convention for approval but shall be reported by the Committee to the next states Convention. (Emphasis added)

Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia

The Committee reviewed the proposed Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia.

The Committee has determined that the proposed Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, conform substantially to the Model Articles of Incorporation pursuant to Canon Section 1.4 and are in compliance with Canonical and Pennsylvania law.

Harry C. Barbin, Chairman

APPENDIX 15: RE4: COMPANION DIOCESE COMMITTEE

Through the love of God we are all made one family in Christ. As companion dioceses, we covenant to walk together on our common journey, learning from each other as we share our spiritual, human and material resources at all levels. As companions on the journey, we will encourage and pray for one another and inspire each other in the work we are given to do as Christ's agents in the world about us.

The Guatemala/Pennsylvania Companion Diocese Mission Statement

The year 2001 marks the sixth year of Companionship between the Dioceses of Guatemala and Pennsylvania and the final year of our second three-year commitment to shared prayer, ministry and mutual support. The committee has submitted a resolution to the 218th Convention to renew our companionship for another three years.

The backbone of the Companion Diocese relationship is the network of parish partnerships, linking people and parishes in Pennsylvania with those in Guatemala. 14 Pennsylvania parishes have been in relationship with some 36 congregations in Guatemala. Two of these congregations have brought their parish partnership relationships to a close during 2001 while seven parishes have either established a partnership relationship or are in the process of exploring that possibility.

During the year some 26 members of this diocese, representing five different Pennsylvania parishes visited their respective companion parishes in Guatemala and two parishes hosted visits by Guatemalans. Examples of projects which Pennsylvania parishes helped to fund this year include a number of scholarship programs, several after school programs, supplies and materials for church schools, a breakfast program for school children, a young mothers' education program, various medical and community health programs, several library projects and various building programs.

Diocesan projects in progress include the publication of a much-needed hymnal with both Spanish and Mayan hymns and a second North-to-South Encuentro which will include young people. The committee fosters and coordinates the companion parish relationships, publishes Companeros, an occasional newsletter, edits the companion calendar of prayer, maintains a speakers bureau and publicizes the activities of the companionship.

A severe drought in the Eastern Region of Guatemala, particularly in and around Chiquimula has resulted in widespread famine with thousands of people malnourished and many starving to death. Although the Episcopal Church does not have a congregation in Chiquimula, the Companion Diocese Committee has sent a gift of $5,000.00 in order that people in the Diocese of Guatemala may purchase food to distribute to families in the affected area.

The Companion Diocese Committee experienced the loss of three very strong members this year: Franz (Rudy) Buse, who moved to New Mexico, the Rt. Rev. Allen L. Bartlett, who is serving part time in the Diocese of Washington, and Dr. Lin Geiger, who had to resign for health reasons. Nonetheless the committee remains strong with fifteen active members, several of whom are new this year. Visitors are welcome to the meetings at 7:30 p.m. on the 2nd Monday of each month at the Church of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Chestnut Hill, or at www.diopa.org/cmpindex.

The Rev. Frank Toia, Chair

APPENDIX 16: RE5: DIVISION OF EDUCATION AND TRAINING

It has been a privilege for me to join Bishop Bennison's staff at this critical moment in our life together as a people of God. In the face of national crisis, we have strengthened our connections as diocese and discovered new depths of Christian community. Your Diocesan Education and Training staff is called to support the ministries of all the baptized by organizing training and education events, identifying and providing resources, organizing a team of mentors and consultants who can work with congregations, and working with diocesan ministry networks to identify resources and plan training. I offer daily thanks for the gifts and dedication of my colleagues in this ministry: Mary Craighill, who serves as director of the Ministry Resource Center and staffs the Christian Education Task Force and Racial Reconciliation Training; Bob Snyder, long-time director of the Audio-Visual Resource Library now located in our new center at Church House; Russell Ketch, administrative assistant, whose skills with electronic technology are proving invaluable as he manages communication and event registrations; and our new part-time colleague Henry Carnes who is focusing on cataloguing the Ministry Resource Center collections and getting the catalogue online.

I am particularly grateful for the over-10 years of volunteer service offered by Becky Moody, a member of St. Mary's, Cathedral Road, who has faithfully catalogued the circulating library at CERC and who is as enthusiastic as the rest of us about putting our new Ministry Resource Center online.

During the past year the Department of Education and Training has undertaken the following projects:

- Continued to work with congregations and deaneries, offering consultation and resources in the areas of Christian Education and Formation, Stewardship, Evangelism, Congregational Development and Outreach Ministry.
- Expanded the Christian Education Resource Center into a Ministry Resource Center, joined forces with the Audio-Visual Resource Library and moved both offices and collections to Church House
- Began the process of putting our catalogues on-line and developing e-mail lists to provide notification about new resources and training opportunities.
- Continued support for the Education for Ministry with 25 groups and 35 certified mentors.
- Organized four Racial Reconciliation training events, providing training for over 170 clergy, lay and youth leaders from around the diocese.
- Organized annual Under One Roof conference in April, offering workshops and worship to over 400 participants. This year we initiated a workshop for Children's Choirs, an innovation we hope to continue at next year's event on April 20, 2001.
- Cooperated with the Bishop's Task Force for Public Education in the development of a seminar Churches and Schools for the annual national Episcopal children's advocacy conference; sent four additional conference participants, followed up with the development of a monthly Prayer Vigil for our Schools at Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square, support for Good Schools Pennsylvania and co-hosted with Holy Trinity a Diocesan Children's Sabbath in October.
- Supported the work of the Christian Education Task Force and organized the Annual Christian Education Event featuring the Rev. Linda L.Grenz, founding Director of LeaderResources. We also included in that day a joint afternoon workshop on youth curricula with the Southeastern PA Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.
- Worked with the Abundant Life Committee to initiate a series of Deanery Gatherings on evangelism, stewardship and congregational development as well as to identify training and new resources in these areas.
- Cooperated with the Spiritual Growth Committee to develop programming and identify resources in the area of spiritual growth as well as began plans for the Jan. 12 Conference on Prayer with Bishop Tom Shaw of the Diocese of Massachusetts.

- Cooperated with other members of the Diocesan Congregational Advancement team to plan two educational programs for Clergy Days.
- Cooperated in the planning of Sharing Ministry, a 3-conference cycle of training events on developing and supporting lay ministry, co-sponsored with the Southeastern PA Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.
- Worked with the Center for Baptismal Living in the development of an Institute for Ministry of Initiation and Formation for Baptismal Living to be held in July 2002 in Columbia, PA.
- Co-sponsored with the Philadelphia Cathedral a Philadelphia Theological Institute lecture by Dr. John Polkinghorne designed for university and research communities in the Cathedral neighborhood.
- Supported the Companion Diocese Committee by circulating the intergenerational curriculum and educational materials in the Guatemala Boxes. Ten parishes used these materials this year.
- Supported Camp Elmo with resources and staffing.

As we look ahead to the coming year, may God grant us humility, courage and hope.

Margaret Sipple, Canon for Education and Training

APPENDIX 17: RE6: DOLPHINS OF DELAWARE VALLEY

The Dolphin Program, founded by the Rev. Virginia Thomas, has experienced a steady growth in the number of volunteers in the Delaware Valley and other areas of the country since it began in 1978. The board of directors, the advisors and the Dolphin staff all work together to promote this ministry and encourage other religious congregations to participate, either by promoting it to their congregations or by sponsoring an affiliate group.

A Dolphin is a volunteer who becomes a friend to one resident in a nursing home or retirement community. The number of volunteers in the Delaware Valley Program fluctuated between 65 and 70 during the year.

Our Annual Meeting and Luncheon on May 4 was held at Christ Church, Ithan, in Villanova. It was a great success with 60 people attending.

The newsletter High Tidings was published three times during the year. It is our only source of direct communication with over 500 Dolphins, and is also sent to about 300 donors nursing homes and churches.

The twelve-member board of directors and one nonvoting officer met nine times in 2001. Board members provide guidance and support to the staff and make policy decision when necessary. Jo Parker and Judy Steck are the two part-time staff.

Dolphin Training Schools are scheduled in the spring and the fall. We encourage our volunteers to attend and all in the community are welcome.

The Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania has never failed to be a bedrock of financial support, and this year was no exception. Without these funds, along with those from the Merion Deanery, the individual churches of the deanery and other faithful churches throughout southeastern Pennsylvania, our program would be unable to continue. Service clubs, particularly the Ardmore Rotary, have been faithful contributors. Our special thanks to St. Christopher's, Gladwyne, which provides office space.

Joseph B. Dietz, President

APPENDIX 18: RE7: EPISCOPAL COMMUNITY SERVICES

"Thou has been a stronghold to the needy in their distress."
Isaiah 25:4

Episcopal Community Services (ECS) has been raising the human spirit since 1870. As the social service agency of the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania, ECS also offers a substantial ministry to parishes in the five counties of this diocese. ECS provides a wide array of social services and programs that are open to people of all faiths. Every day, ECS is working hard to feed the region's hungry in body and spirit, to care for the sick and to comfort those in distress. Guided by a faith-based mission, ECS works in partnership with parishes, the private and public sector, foundations and other non-profit organizations to build programs of distinction. Our common goal is to bring meaningful and significant change to the lives of those most in need in the Greater Philadelphia Region.

The fiscal year ending July 1, 2001 marks the completion of the first year of ECS' three-year Strategic Plan. It has been a year of accomplishments in which ECS has met or surpassed its programmatic and financial goals. On July 1, 2000 St. Barnabas Mission of ECS celebrated its one-year anniversary. The Mission, a shelter for homeless women and their children, is now fully incorporated into the agency's services. ECS continues to enhance program and continue to integrate the after-school partnerships at Church of the Advocate, St. Andrew and St. Monica, and Trinity Church, Coatesville, into the agency's program structure. In an effort to manage and expand ECS Home Care Services to the elderly and homebound, ECS has been working to implement a strategic alliance with Homemaker Services of the Metropolitan Area.

ECS has furthered its goal to pursue a Community Building Plan by identifying partnerships to help the plan thrive and by addressing themes and issues which ECS will focus on. ECS will continue to forge relationships with our direct service programs, the diocese, parishes and other key community groups. In this manner, ECS will continue to enhance existing services while intentionally adding and shifting staff with skills in community organizing, economic development and advocacy to best balance the agency's goals of charity and justice.

In December, 2000 ECS completed the highly successful 21st Century Initiatives Campaign. The yearlong Campaign raised $4.4 million creating a 21st Century Initiatives Fund to provide sustained funding for St. Barnabas Mission of ECS and the community-based partnerships that support After-School and Summer Camp Programs. ECS has also been blessed by the loyalty of annual giving donors and foundations.

The vitality, creativity and professionalism of our staff combined with the loyal support and encouragement of so many individuals and organizations is key to the success ECS has had in maintaining programs of excellence to impoverished people of all faiths.

The Rev. Robert H. Betts, Executive Director
John L. Wineland, President, Board of Council

APPENDIX 19: RE8: FINANCE AND PROPERTY COMMITTEE

PERIOD: NOV. 2000 TO OCT. 2001

The committee took Convention's direction to amend the year 2001 Proposed Budget to reflect actual pledges received for 2001. Under the leadership of Peter Kreek, the Program Budget Committee met on December 4, 2000, and amended the budget to reflect actual pledges totaling $1,686,548.00. 14 changes were made to other income and expenses. Finance and Property approved the new budget on December 20. Council approved on December 21 and the amended budget was sent to Convention delegates on January 3.

The committee approved a new design for the financial statement based upon the budget format. The new design was first utilized in January and has been modified several times to better show the total financial condition of the diocese. The committee empowered the program budget committee to prepare the draft of the year 2002 budget. There was close cooperation with the Bishop and Standing Committee to marshal diocesan endowments to add sufficient resources to make the budget reflect the needs of Our Holy Experiment. Finance and Property approved the proposed budget on June 7, 2001. Standing Committee approved the use of special endowment funds on June 19, Finance and Property approved the budget on June 20, and council approved the proposed budget on June 21, 2001.

The committee worked with Clergy Salaries and Pensions to endorse a Housing Equity Allowance for clergy in parishes with rectories. Chandler Joyner, CFO, conducted several seminars on fiscal matters at the Under One Roof seminar for parishes in the spring. The committee assumed financial management of St. John's, Huntingdon Valley, on June 1 after a number of parishioners and their clergy left the congregation. Mr. Joyner installed a financial system to support the new priest Fr. Raymond Atlee.

The Committee on Finance and Property notes, with appreciation, the many years of work of the Chair Arlene McGurk who left the committee in June.

Bill Powell, Bishop's Staff

APPENDIX 20: RE9: LUTHERAN/EPISCOPAL TASK FORCE ON PUBLIC EDUCATION

This was a year of re-energizing the Task Force and building partnerships to make our work more effective and statewide. The re-energizing started with the Episcopal Child Advocacy Conference at Galludet University in Washington, D.C., last Spring. Margaret Sipple invited the Task Force to organize a presentation about the work of the Task Force, which included increasing volunteerism, starting a church based after school and/or other educational program, and encouraging people to become advocates for equity in public education so that the quality of a child's school does not depend on where they live. Barbara Abbott from Christ Church, who started a parish-sponsored after school program, Vicki Ellis, who is a member of St. Luke and the Epiphany, Philadelphia, and a School District employee who works to build partnerships between churches and schools, Cathy Constantine from Grace Church, Allentown, who started a Montessori pre-school in her parish, and I, who have been most involved in the advocacy component of our work, worked together to create the presentation. Not only did the three days at Galludet re-energize us, but we stirred up interest among the groups that had signed up to spend the three days of the conference on public education. We returned from Washington more committed than ever to the work that was before us.

Two major new activities are now under way.

We have built a partnership with Good Schools Pennsylvania founded by David Hornbeck, the past superintendent of the Philadelphia School District. David has raised 5 million dollars to create a grass roots network across the Commonwealth that is working to create 1,000 Groups of Ten across the state who will commit themselves to meeting once a month for 6-8 months to learn the facts about the inequity in our public schools, and to carry out one political act in tandem with that meeting-a letter or visit to a legislator, an op ed, attendance at a community event on the issue of education, a vigil to bear witness, etc. One of the target populations for organizing Groups of 10 are churches. Without this partnership we would not be able to work statewide which is critical if we are going to change the minds and hearts of policy makers in Harrisburg as well as future gubernatorial candidates about the importance of equitable funding for what works to produce good educational outcomes for children in all 501 school districts in Pennsylvania. Bishop Charles Bennison has committed our diocese to creating a minimum of 40 Groups of Ten. We are on our way to doing that after an excellent meeting with Donna Cooper, Executive Director of Good Schools Pa. and a persuasive advocate who made it clear that support for Groups of Ten would come in the form of training for leaders, curriculum to use for the meetings, and any other support that groups needed to be successful. Bishop Bennison has led and attended two vigils in Harrisburg to witness for good schools for all children in Pennsylvania and while he was there has visited key legislators. We have also begun a weekly vigil in Philadelphia at Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square, the first Wednesday of every month from 6-6:30pm. Join us. The Rev. Mark Preece and Alex Gilpin, his assistant, can be contacted at 215/627-6434, ext. 132 (markp@diopa.org or alexg@diopa.org) for more information about the Task Force and/or how to start a Group of Ten in your church.

Lucy Hackney, Co-Chair

APPENDIX 21: RE10: PENNSYLVANIA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

The Diocese of Pennsylvania continues its partnership with 41 other church bodies in the PCC. This represents 20 Protestant, Anglican and Orthodox communions.

Together we affirm:

God calls us to unity and partnership. As a community of church bodies we celebrate Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and share this Good News with our neighbors in words and deeds, and we are partners in nurture, service and moral leadership. How we make this mission incarnate is through the ministries in which we engage. This report highlights the ways we have done so in the past year.

Ecumenical Witness: With the help of the Rev. Dr. Michael Kinnamon, ecumenical theologian and the Allen and Dottie Miller Professor Mission and Peace at Eden Theological Seminary (St. Louis, Mo.), the Council has begun exploring what it means to be a "fellowship of churches." Kinnamon presented two major addresses at a Council-sponsored theological forum in April 2000 and also addressed the Governing Board.

In their remarks to the Governing Board, Kinnamon challenged the Council to understand itself in more than functional terms so the Council is not just what churches do together, but also how they are together. The Future Action team has been looking at these assertions.

The Pennsylvania Conference on Interchurch Cooperation (PCIC), the statewide ecumenical agency of Catholic, Anglican, Orthodox and Protestant church bodies, streamlined its structure. The new structure makes it easier for PCIC to facilitate ecumenical engagement between the Roman Catholic Church and the church bodies of the PCC.

Ministries of Service and Witness:

Through Pastoral Care: The PCC, under a contractual agreement with the Dept. of Public Welfare, continues to provide about 60 part-time chaplains in 26 institutions – mental health and mental retardation facilities, youth development centers, prisons and veterans' hospitals.

Among People at Leisure: Thousands of people participated in worship services or other activities in 39 state, federal, private campgrounds, staffed by 24 summer leisure ministry chaplains assisted by many more volunteers.

Along Pennsylvania's Highways: The Council continues to support local churches engaging in trucker and traveler ministry at Brooksville, Carlisle and Breezewood. Three chaplains serve along with volunteers and local church leaders. The ministry along the I-90 corridor in Erie County is in the process of closing because of persistent funding difficulties.

Among Farmworkers: Congregations, particularly in the Fruitbelt and in Chester County, include migrant and seasonal farm workers in their ministry. Field chaplains and volunteers offer seasonal farm workers and their families worship services, spiritual counseling, clothing and other material aid, emergency transportation for medical care, translation services, emergency housing and food, and recreation.

Public Advocacy: The Council places major emphasis on helping citizens to influence their government, finding appropriate and effective ways to put their faith and its values into the public square. Our priority issues include public education, welfare reform, campaign finance reform, death penalty moratorium, the environment and racism/hate crimes.

The diocese's contribution includes $1,350 to the core budget and the time of the following individuals: The Rt. Rev. Charles Bennison and Nancy S. Ritter serving on the Governing Board, Mrs. Ritter as council sercretary for the past four years and currently chair of the Nominating Committee, the Rev. Lynn Lampman on the Public Advocacy Action Team, Mary Craighill on the Christian Education Committee, the Rev. Dr. Charles Wissink on Ecumenical Relations, and William Powell on the Pa. Interfaith Disaster Response Group.

APPENDIX 22: RE11: PHILADELPHIA CATHEDRAL

This past year has been a year of energetic building; in the areas of physical structure, programs and ecumenical cooperation.

The $2.6M Cathedral Renovation Project, funded entirely from the Chapter's own resources, has now reached roughly half-way in the construction process and is on target for our planned rededication date of Ascension Day next year (Thursday, May 9, in the evening). Re-ordering liturgical space is always a tricky business, the point of which is not usually recognized until after the event, but we are confident that the end result will delight and inspire, and give us all in the diocese a dynamic new focus to our corporate life.

The programs of the Cathedral, under the direction of Paul Harris, have expanded rapidly and effectively, and have established a new base of support within the wider community. During the summer, a 15-week outdoor jazz festival often stopped the traffic on 38th Street on Wednesday evenings, and the breakfast time Science and Spirituality seminars, in association with the Philadelphia Center for religion and science, continue to make accessible the work of internationally-known scientists.

Our 'getting to know you' program has brought members of parishes from all over the diocese to join us at Sunday worship and to share news of their local church. At the same time, I have aimed to be 'on the road' one Sunday in four, which has helped me find my way around the diocese, and enabled parishes to hear more about the place of the cathedral in our life together.

The single most significant event this year was the appointment, in the wake of the Call to Common Mission, of Gordon Lathrop as Lutheran Pastor at the Cathedral. Dr. Lathrop is an internationally recognized authority on liturgy and honors us by his presence and participation. Many blessings have followed: our Sunday liturgy is now enriched by the interweaving of Anglican and Lutheran insights and traditions; an ecumenical Liturgical Institute (incorporating a relocated Stevick Theological Library) has been inaugurated at Cathedral House; and a Bishops' Advisory Council has been established, chaired jointly by Bishop Bennison and Bishop Almquist, to advise the bishops on how best to work out locally the opportunities offered us by the Call to Common Mission.

Altogether a positive and exciting year as we await with growing anticipation the re-opening of the Cathedral space.

The Rev. Richard Giles, Dean

APPENDIX 23: RE12: THE PHILADELPHIA THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTE

This year the Philadelphia Theological Institute experienced a change in leadership as our board chair of more than 15 years, The Rev. Randolph Williamson retired as chair. The board hosted a dinner attended by many former board members with the Bishop and Mrs. Bennison. The board elected The Rev. Dr. Daniel Hamby chair of the board.

The program year continued with our Theologian-In-Residence program that occurred from April 29 through May 6. Dr. John Polkinghorne, KBE, a fellow of Cambridge University and retired president of Queens College Cambridge was our theologian. His subject was titled, "The Riddle of Jesus. How will it end? A response of a Scientist-Theologian."

This program was sponsored by St. David's, Radnor, St. Peter's in the Great Valley, Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square, St. Peter's, Germantown, St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Chestnut Hill, the Cathedral, CERC, and St. Mary's, Cathedral Road. The Episcopal Academy hosted Dr. Polkinghorne for their first Rev. Dr. James Trimble Symposium.

The wide range of sponsors, locations and audiences made this program the most successful to date. More than 2000 people attended one or more of the talks. The Cathedral and CERC included the University Community in West Philadelphia by offering the program at International House.

FALL 2001 was held on Friday evening September 21st at St. Martin-in-the-Fields with Dr. Miroslav Volf of the Yale University Divinity School. His talk, "Suffering, Memory and Redemption" drew an audience from around the diocese who wanted to hear this widely printed author and teacher.

The board is composed of laypeople and clergy of the Diocese. This fall the board granted their Executive Director, The Rev. James L. Shannon a three-month sabbatical after his eight years of service to the Institute. The dues of associates who yearly renew their commitment support PTI, and a grant from the St. Andrew's Fund continue to support the mission of The Philadelphia Theological Institute.

The Rev. James L. Shannon, Executive Director

APPENDIX 24: RE13: SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE

For 158 years the Seamen's Church Institute and its predecessor missions have ministered to countless thousands of seafarers who have come into the Ports of the Delaware River. In the name of and on behalf of the people of this Diocese, SCI has welcomed these migrant workers of the sea with the love of Christ – caring for their physical, emotional and spiritual needs. The importance of this ministry is summarized in the following:

The opportunity to talk with chaplains, not necessarily on religious subjects, is important in itself. The work these seafarers do is so isolating and so lacking in human contact that these contacts with SCI's personnel assume a greater importance than might be assumed.... and activities such as shopping, for instance, are really important socializing and humanizing experiences for the seafarers who have undergone a long confinement at sea. – David Reid, Terminal Manager of Novolog and a former seafarer.

We now serve over 55,000 seafarers on 2,000 ships a year. We have added more staff over the last few years to meet the greater demand for SCI's services from an increasing number of seafarers. Our high speed Internet and email services provide seafarers free communication to their families and fellow seafarers around the world. And we are exploring ways to bring more services to the terminals for seafarers unable to easily leave their ships.

SCI faces some unique challenges in the coming years: how to minister to even more ships with shorter turn around times. Worldwide shipping is expected to double in the next 20 years and the ports along the Delaware River can expect even greater numbers of ships calling in the Port.

This ministry is recognized and valued by the Maritime Community. SCI serves an important role in ministering to the Maritime Business Community as it seeks to serve the wider economy that we are all depend upon. This relationship between the Church and the Maritime Business Community is quite unique because this community clearly wants the Church's presence in the midst of its work.

I want to thank the many churches in the diocese who faithfully support SCI's mission and ministry. We are blessed by this support and look for additional parishes to join in this work.

The Rev. James D. Von Dreele, Executive Director

APPENDIX 25: RE14: SPIRITUAL GROWTH RESOURCES COMMITTEE

The SGRC is devoted to being a Spiritual leaven that will promote mutual ministry and a deeper prayer life among parishes and individuals.

In accordance with the diocesan initiative toward teaching, learning, and praying, we are particularly devoted to supporting congregations in their efforts to increase the prayerfulness of parish life and of the lives of individuals and families. The SGRC acts as a clearinghouse for information and activities centered on prayer and spiritual development, providing information on retreat centers, literature, and spiritual practices. Other activities this year included: referrals for spiritual direction, participation in Under One Roof, and revision of the directory of retreat centers. Understanding the important role of leadership in the congregation, we continue to devote our efforts to encouraging vestries and other parish leaders to deepen their practice of prayer and to utilize a variety of spiritual growth resources for themselves, as well as encouraging them to provide spiritual growth opportunities for their members. Meetings are held the first Thursday of each month at Christ Church, Ithan, beginning at 7 p.m. with a half-hour meditation. All interested persons are welcome.

Candace Woessner, Chair

APPENDIX 26: RE-21:REPORT OF THE ECUMENICAL AND INTERFAITH COMMISSION

It is interesting to see the work of over thirty years reach fruition. In September of last year, a service was held with the Lutherans at which time we celebrated the passing of the revised Concordat of Agreement, which was called Call to Common Mission. In January of this year a large congregation of Lutherans and Episcopalians from all over the United States celebrated the same event at the National cathedral in Washington. A joint commission has been appointed to continue to work out the details.

There is one problem that has emerged since the formal adoption of the documents by both denominations. A small group of Lutheran pastors or aspiring pastors do not wish to be ordained by bishops in the apostolic secession which was part of the agreement. Unhappily, the Lutheran bishops have supported them in their "right of conscience." As of this moment the matter has not been resolved. Each of us in our own congregations must continue to work our Lutheran neighbors to make the new relationship a reality.

Earlier in the year your commission began to work on a meeting with the Muslims in the Philadelphia area. The anticipated meeting was for June, but circumstances prevented it from happening and the commission will continue to try to open those doors to communication with the followers of Islam.

Work is also being done to have a follow-up with the rabbis after our first meeting with them a couple of years ago.

Finally, this will be my last report. After ten years as chair of the Commission on Ecumenical and Interfaith activities, I am resigning. I wish to thank the bishops who have asked me to serve in this capacity, for ecumenical work has been a major part of my ministry for almost 50 years. And I thank the diocese for being able to serve you and the Lord in the ecumenical work of our Church. My prayer for our congregations, our diocese and denominations is that of the Lord Jesus Christ whose own prayer was "that all may be one, even as You and I are one...so that the world may know You have sent me."

The Rev. Dr. Charles J. Wissink, Chair

APPENDIX 27: RE 22: A STATEMENT FROM THE COMMITTEE TO COMBAT RACISM

In the wake of the events of September 11th, we turned to our communities of faith to pray for the victims, their families and friends, rescue workers, and all people who reside in this sovereign nation, under God. Even as we continue to be impacted in the aftermath, we are attempting, with renewed strength, to return to our daily routines, a changed people.

Unfortunately, some people of faith – Muslims and Sikhs, for example – are suffering because of religious profiling. For far too long, the Church remained silent about racial profiling. Only recently have we acknowledged its insidious nature and oppressive outcome. As people attempting to follow the path of Christ, we must seek to eliminate racial and religious profiling in all its forms. Persons of African descent are most aware of the devastating effects of racial profiling.

The members of the Committee to Combat Racism call upon you to oppose racial and religious profiling. In light of September 11th, we particularly encourage you, at this time, to reach out to Muslims and others who may be suffering because of their religious convictions. We encourage you to be proactive, not waiting for notorious incidents to provoke action. Each parish and person will have to determine what actions to take, but we have included a few suggestions:

-Worship with Muslims and/or Sikhs.

-Light a candle in front of a Mosque on a Friday night to symbolize commitment the light of religious freedom.

-Frequent Muslim and Sikh businesses.

-Call a local Imam and offer to help in any way he might recommend.

-Offer to accompany Muslims and Sikhs in public – shopping, on buses, while walking.

-Refuse to support any who espouse hatred and indiscriminate retaliation.

-Invite Muslims and Arabs to special events in the Episcopal Church whereby they may experience our hospitality.

Real change can be effected only when good people stand against evil. Genuine emotional fears must be eliminated for change and healing to take place. WE CALL YOU TO ACTION because none are truly free until all are free, and peace can only come through justice.

Notes

1 Sayer fund support drops to 40% of total income
2 The endowment income rate is expected to be 41/4% not 4%
3 This is the amount of pledges below the planned assumption
4 Increase to include directory; it already includes convention journal, canons
5 The fundraising has been increased to include all Camp Elmo tuition costs
6 The need for planning consultants has been satisfied
7 Funding is provided in addition to the Standing Comm grant for training
8 Reduction in support for chapancy training
9 One position has been eliminated and salary needs were overstated on another
10 Assume we will self-publish Pennsylvania Episcopalian
11 This has been re-titled with reduced funding
12 One time costs in 2000 are not expected to recur in 2001
13 The move of CERC to Church House will reduce costs overall
14 The need for an additional finance person has been deferred to 2002
